

Our Lady of the Hills Catholic High School donated 119 toys to the Raphael Community Free Clinic for their annual holiday drive, helping parents in need supply their children with Christmas gifts. The school's National Honor Society program representatives carried in boxes and bags of toys, as part of their school-wide effort.